

Hello and Welcome to Mrs Smith's Phonics Group Week 11.

Wow! Where are the weeks going they are speeding by?!

I hope you are all well and staying safe. Even if you are not in school it's nice when you give a wave and say hello if I see you out and about.

Nearly the summer holidays and then you will be in Year 2 in September! Remember to say hello and wave when you see me. I will miss you all you have been fantastic 😊

This week we are going to learn the alternative spellings for the igh and f phoneme 😊.

Why not start your phonics learning daily with our alphabet song or to get you moving BBC Super Movers with Naomi Wilkinson <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jYeMpUdufNk>

Work hard and have Fun.

Hope to see you soon

Love Mrs Smith xx

You could print this grid off and check what phonemes (sounds) to grapheme (written) you can recall daily. You could colour, tick or cover with counters, coins or pebbles the ones you can say using the PURE SOUND. If you don't want to print it off you could point to each sound and say using the PURE SOUND. This week I have made it trickier as I have muddled the sounds up on the grid! How did you do? Could you say all the sounds? Well Done 😊

Long i Sound Family Phoneme Spotter

Ned the Knight

Ned had always dreamed of being a knight. Every night, he would look up at the stars and he would wonder what it would be like to fight for his king and his queen.

One day, Ned decided that it was time to follow his dreams and try. He gave his armour a shine, he made himself some fried egg sandwiches for breakfast, he packed a slice of pie for lunch and then he set off to the royal castle high in the hills.

Five hours into his journey, Ned was deep inside a forest. Suddenly, he heard someone crying nearby. Sitting in the bright sunshine, which radiated from out of the sky, he saw a bride in tears sitting on a log.

"What's wrong?" asked Ned, giving her a tissue from his bag. "Why are you crying out here and all alone?"

"Oh dear," sighed the bride. "I am supposed to be getting married tonight but I am lost in these woods and I don't know which is the right way! I have tried and tried. I am so frightened!"

"Never fear!" replied Ned. "I am a knight and I shall get you to your wedding on time!"

He helped her onto her feet and he began to guide her through the forest. They walked side by side for hours. The bride told Ned that her name was Caroline and that she was going to marry Prince Ryan.

After walking for nine miles, they reached the royal castle. Ned called to the guards instructing them to open the drawbridge so that he and Caroline could enter. The king and Prince Ryan were delighted to see that she was unharmed and they rewarded Ned with any wish he desired.

Now, Sir Ned rides along with the king's other knights, fighting terrible monsters and saving those in need.

Wednesday: Play Quickwrite Graphemes practise writing the Graphemes on the sheet and slide 2.

Get your grown up or someone to say the sound and see if you can write the grapheme.

Can you write more than one grapheme for each phoneme?

e.g. a, ai ay, a-e, eigh ee, ey, ea, e, igh, y, ie, i-e, i, eye

How quick can you write them?

How many did you get right?

Which ones do you need to practise?

Practise your grapheme recognition with Flash Cards Speed Trial on Phonics play.

Play word sort using either of these resources.
