

Dear parents, hear this joyful rhyme,
It's almost World Book Day – a wondrous time!
A day for stories, fun, and cheer,
To spark young minds year after year.

From fairy tales to lands afar,
Books can take us where dreams are.
Pirates, dragons, outer space—
Adventure waits in every place!

Get nice and cosy for poems to share,
A world of books beyond compare.
So join us in this special way,
And celebrate World Book Day!

It's that time again to celebrate World Book Day 2025!

This year, our theme will be POETRY! We are inviting your children to come in on Thursday 6th March in their cosy clothes (pyjamas, oversized hoodies, onesies are all welcome) ready to be immersed in the world of poetry. We will be hearing from the poet Joshua Siegal, listening to poems, writing our own and performing poems throughout the day.

COMPETITION TIME!

Joshua Siegal writes lots of poetry about his cat, Bluebell. We will be holding 2 competitions:

KS2:

'Pet Poems' Have a go at writing a poem based on a beloved or imaginary pet. There are many types of poems – see ??? for examples.

KS1:

Create a picture, painting or model about a pet – real or imaginary – being as creative as you can. Write a simple poem about it using the example.

